THE WHITE HOUSE

WASHINGTON

69 AUG 18 AM 10:14

17 August 1989

Honorable Claiborne Pell, U.S.S.
Russell Senate Office Building 335
Washington, D.C. 20510

Dear Senator Pell:

In our conversation a week ago you strongly endorsed the selection of professionally qualified persons to serve on the National Commission on Libraries and Information Services (NCLIS).

I am pleased to tell you that President Bush has chosen to reappoint three sitting members of NCLIS: Daniel Casey Sr, Daniel Carter, and Elinor Swaim. I believe all three meet the expectations you have of NCLIS members.

Thank you for your continuing interest in this commission. I look forward to seeing you after the recess.

Sincerely,

CHASE UNTERMAYER
Assistant to the President and Director of Presidential Personnel
